Services Planned For Crash Victim

Rosary services for Ronald Ernest Oliveria, 18-year-old Camden High School graduate who was killed in a Highway 17 collision near Santa Cruz late Wednesday afternoon, are planned Monday night in Los Gatos.

Services are scheduled at 8 p.m. at Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills.

Requiem Mass will be offered in Oliveria's memory Tuesday at 9 a.m. at St. Frances Cabrini Church, Cambrian Park, by the Rev. Francis K. Murray. Burial follows in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

The Oliveria youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Oliveria of 2947 Benjamin Ct., died of injuries suffered when his northbound car crossed the center line of a straight section of Highway 17 eight miles north of Santa Cruz and sideswiped a southbound car.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Santa Cruz County Hospital.

California Highway Patrolmen investigating the mishap theorized Oliveria's auto drifted across the roadway and narrowly missed an oncoming vehicle, then clipped the following car driven by Barry F. Whitehead, 49, of Scotts Valley.

Whitehead's auto was struck, in turn, by a car driven by Albert F. Dittmann, 57, of Santa Cruz.

Dittman was uninjured but Whitehead was hospitalized with multiple abrasions and facial lacerations.

Oliveria was born in San Jose on Aug. 17, 1948. He was graduated last June from Camden High School, and had been working as a service station attendant at the Martin Oil Co., 851 Hamilton Ave.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by three brothers—Steve, Larry and Bobbie—and by his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cleveland. All live in San Jose.

College Student, 27, Dies of Stroke

LOS GATOS — Stanley Hartwell Williams, 27-year-old San Jose State College student, died early Wednesday evening at a hospital here, having suffered a stroke shortly after noon Tuesday at his home, 105 Oak Rim Wy.

Following an autopsy, the County Coroner's office determined the cause of Williams' death to be a massive cerebral hemorrhage.

Williams had telephoned his wife, Patricia, at work Tuesday at 12:30 p.m., but could utter only the word "help," said Los Gatos police. By the time she arrived, Los Gatos firemen were attempting to resuscitate her husband.

Memorial services will be conducted at 4 p.m. today at Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills, by the Rev. Henry M. Bremer. Burial follows in Los Gatos Memorial Park.

Williams was born on July 31, 1939, in San Francisco, and attended elementary and secondary schools in Sunnyvale.

Survivors other than his wife are a daughter. Patrice, and son, Corey, both of Cupertino; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams of Santa Barbara; a brother, Allen Williams, and sister, Miss Claudia S. Williams, both of Santa Barbara, and his grandmother, Mrs. Lola O'Bryne of Cupertino.

Volpe, a county resident five years, worked for Walter Wilson Co., San Jose contracting firm.

A native of Valhalla, N.Y., Volpe lived at 285 Richfield Ave.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Volpe of San Jose; son Frank Volpe, mother, Rae Volpe, brother Emile Volpe, sisters Julia Buono, Maggie Balderine and Clara Susi, all of Long Island; and three grandchildren.

Interment will be in Long Island National Cemetery. Arrangements here were handled by Santa Clara Funeral Home.

Four-Story Fall Fatal For Patient

LOS GATOS — Services will be conducted tonight for Lawrence Falaschi, long-time tavern owner, who plunged to his death out the window of a hospital Friday.

Falaschi, 60, a patient at the Palo Alto Veteran Hospital, was pronounced dead on the scene from massive injuries suffered in the four-story fall.

Investigators said the victim, seen pacing in a corridor, suddenly turned into a utility room and tried to leap through the half-open window.

A nurses' aide, Kay Di Giorgio, alone in the room, caught the man by the legs as he thrust himself through the screen and out over the sill. Falaschi managed to struggle and kick loose from her grip before further help could arrive. He fell into a clump of bushes beside the driveway 42 feet below.

The Rosary will be recited this evening at 8 p.m. in the Chapel of the Hills Mortuary.

Falaschi, of 532 N. Santa Cruz Ave., a resident of the county for 50 years, operated a bar here for more than 25 years at the N. Santa Cruz Avenue address. He was born in Firebaugh, Calif., and was affiliated with the San Jose Elks Club.

He was the brother of All-American football player, Nello Falaschi, former University of Santa Clara star now living in Oakland.

Also surviving is another brother, Eugene Falaschi, also of Oakland, and two sisters, Mrs. Edith Semenza, of Sacramento and Mrs. Anna Flesner, of San Jose.

Requiem Mass will be celebrated tomorrow at 10 a.m. from St. Mary's Church here. Entombment will be in Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery.

Funeral Due For Traffic Fatality, 55

LOS GATOS — Rosary services are planned tonight at 8 o'clock here for Harold F. Snowdon Jr., 55, of 135 Riviera Terrace, executive of the Prudential Insurance Co. of America, who died early Sunday afternoon of injuries received in a traffic mishap.

Rosary recitation will be at Darling, Fisher & Faber's Chapel of the Hills.

The Rev. Leonard W. Bose will conduct prayer services Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the chapel, followed by burial in Los Gatos Memorial Park.

Snowdon suffered internal injuries and a broken arm when his automobile struck the rear of a pickup truck on Highway 17 near Lark Avenue. He died at a hospital here soon afterward.

His was the 166th auto fatality recorded during 1967 on County highways, a record.

A native Scot, Snowdon had been employed by Prudential for 39 years. At the time of his death he was office supervisor for Prudential's mortgage loan and investment division at its San Mateo operation.

He was assigned to the Seattle, Wash., office three years before coming to this area two months ago.

Snowdon was a member of Lake City Elks Lodge 1800 in Seattle.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Helen Marie Snowdon of Seattle; his daughter, Mrs. Judith A. Froess of San Jose; one grandson; his mother, Mrs. Harold F. Snowdon Sr. of New Jersey; his brother, John A. Snowdon of New Jersey, and two sisters — Mrs. Margaret Boehler of New Jersey, and Mrs. Mary Lowe of Pennsylvania, his twin.

Saratogan R. A. Keller Found Dead

SARATOGA — Robert Alan Keller, 48, of 13745 Pierce road, a production control specialist for General Electric's Atomic Energy Plant in San Jose, was found dead in his parked car early Thursday morning.

The exhaust pipe of the car, parked near Almaden Expressway south of Blossom Hill road, was fitted with a garden hose. Coroner's office spokesmen said Keller was an apparent suicide victim.

Keller was born in Peoria, Ill., and served with the 497th Army Engineers as a non-commissioned officer during World War II in the European Theater and in India.

He came to California following the war, residing two years in the Los Angeles area before coming to Santa Clara Valley. He had been associated with GE for the past 18 months.

Keller was active in community work. He was cubmaster of a Saratoga pack, was a volunte fireman here, and was a member of the Good Government Group of Saratoga.

He also was active in the organization and chartering of the Brookside Club of Saratoga, and belonged to the San Jose Civitan Club.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Janice Y. Keller, a secretary at Vallco Park, Cupertino; two sons, Lt. Tom A. Keller of Fort Benning, Ga., and Paul A. Keller of Saratoga; two daughters, Mrs. Linda K. Laizure of Redding, and Cpl. Donna K. Palmer, USMC, of El Toro; two grandsons; his mother, Mrs. Roy Keller of Santa Cruz; a brother, John M. Keller of San Jose, and a sister, Miss Louise N. Keller of Detroit, Mich.

The Rev. West Davis will officiate at funeral services Saturday at 1 p.m. at Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills, Los Gatos. Burial follows in Madronia Cemetery here.

Mother's Fear Real; Tot Dies

A drainage ditch which a San Jose mother feared could be a hazard to the safety of small children yesterday claimed the life of her 3-year-old daughter.

Dead is Denise Remon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remon, of 749 Los Huecos. The child was found in the shallow water of a channel near the family's home.

Ironically, Mrs. Remon had been discussing with neighbors the danger of one of the children falling into the water and getting hurt, or worse. She had planned to contact the Santa Clara County Flood Control District and warn them about the ditch.

But before she could, tragedy struck.

According to firemen, the child was discovered by her mother a short time after Mrs. Remon noticed the child missing from the house. Apparently she just wandered off.

The channel, which had been dammed-up for construction purposes, is situated in an open field at the deadend of Los Huecos, on the edge of a new housing development.

Firemen said the child apparently fell down the steep side of the ditch some 12 feet into the cement-bottom ditch. When they arrived Mrs. Remon was giving the youngster mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Workmen from a nearby project joined fishermen in further efforts to revive the child at the scene, but failed. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Good Samaritan Hospital.

A final touch of irony to the tragic death was pointed up by neighbors.

A wood barrier separating the field from the residences on Los Huecos had been taken down the day before to provide access for heavy equipment operating in the area, they said.

MRS. FRANCES CLEVELAND

58-Year Resident Of W. Valley Dies

MONTE SERENO — Mrs. Frances Coleman Cleveland, a Los Gatos area resident since 1910, died Monday afternoon at West Valley convalescent home after a lingering illness. She was 91.

Mrs. Cleveland was born in Maryland on Nov. 9, 1876, and came to California in 1908, residing initially in San Francisco. She came to the West Valley two years later.

In 1916 she moved into her home here at 18020 Saratoga-Los Gatos road, across Highway 9 from the Monte Sereno City Hall.

The residence had housed the exhibition of her native Maryland at the San Francisco Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915, and was moved here upon its conclusion. She has lived in the house since.

Her estate of four acres is about one-third of its original area, the balance having been subdivided in 1947 into the Robsmere Terrace tract.

Mrs. Cleveland was the eldest living alumna of Mount Vernon Seminary, exclusive finishing school in Washington, D.C. In the West Valley she was affiliated with the Los Gatos History Club, the Foothill Club and Montalvo Association.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Louis Lord Coleman of Carmel; her granddaughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hurst of Los Altos; her grandson, William Lord Coleman of Berkeley; two grandchildren, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles M. Thirlkeld of Monte Sereno.

The Rev. Roy W. Strasburger of sSt. Andrew's Episcopal Church Saratoga, will conduct graveside services Thursday at 2 p.m. at Los Gatos Memorial Park. Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills is in charge of arrangements.

Heart Attack Fatal For Los Gatan

LOS GATOS — Johnson Harris, 63, of 16823 Leroy Ave., a retired San Jose barber, succumbed to a heart attack Wednesday night at Kern General Hospital in Bakersfield.

Harris was returning from a visit with his sister Mrs. Dixie Lang, in Yucaipa, last Friday when he was stricken. He had been hospitalized in Bakersfield when he suffered the recurrent stroke.

Harris was born in Henning, Tenn., in 1905, and came to the West Valley area with his family in 1913. His father, Ahmed Harris, purchased 44 acres of land in the vicinity of what is now Union and New Jersey avenues, and planted it to orchard.

Harris attended schools in the Union District.

He was manager of Moffett Field barber shops before and after World War II for a period of 17 years. During the war, Harris saw action in the U.S. Army as an enlisted man in the Battle of the Bulge.

For 19 years, Harris owned and operated his own barber shop on Old Oakland Highway in San Jose. He retired three years ago.

He was a member of Barbers' Union Local 252, San Jose, and of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4236, San Jose.

Harris is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ruby Harris; his son, Randy Harris, and daughter, Miss Evelyn Harris, both of Los Gatos; two other sisters, Mrs. Polly Crawford of Los Gatos, and Mrs. Laura Frederiksen of San Jose, and two brothers, Robert Harris of Los Gatos, and Denver Harris of Hayward.

Funeral services are pending at Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills, Los Gatos.

Young S.J. Girl Dies Suddenly

Margaret Susan Paul, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Paul, 4541 Tilbury Drive, died yesterday at home where she had been suffering from what was thought to be pneumonia.

She reportedly had been responding to treatment when suddenly she died. The coroner's office is making tests to determine the precise cause.

The girl was born in San Francisco. She had been a resident of the county for nine years and attended Castro Junior High School.

The funeral will be at 11 a.m. today in St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Saratoga.

Survivors, besides the parents, include a brother, Steven Paul of San Jose; and her grandparents, Mrs. Margaret F. Paul of San Jose and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rashuski of New Jersey.

Russian Baroness Dies in Los Gatos

LOS GATOS — Mrs. Eileen P. Grot, 77, Russian baroness wife of Alexander T. Grot, a former embassy attache to the court of Czar Nicholas II, died early Monday evening at their home here at 129 New York Ave.

Mrs. Grot was born on Jan. 28, 1891, in Tobolsk, Siberia, Russia. She was educated in Russian universities, receiving the equivalent of master's degrees in Russian language and literature.

At the outset of World War I, she came to the United States with her husband who had been issued a diplomatic visa to purchase arms for the Russian effort in that war.

The Grots returned to Russia in 1917 just as the March revolution erupted. They returned to the United States under cloak of diplomatic immunity, and he purchased some orange groves in Florida.

In 1921, the Grots came to the San Francisco Bay Area, settling in Berkeley. For many years, Grot was an inspector for the Merco-Nordstrom Valve Co. in Emeryville.

Mrs. Grot was widely known in the Bay Area as an authoress, poetess, translator and tutor in Russian language and Russian literature, and was a regular contributor to "The New Russian Word," published in New York City.

Among her better known works is "Lighted Candles," an anthology of poetry published in San Francisco in 1923.

The Grots came to Los Gatos from Berkeley in 1967.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Wilton of Saratoga; her granddaughter, Mrs. Victoria B. Wheeler of Los Gatos; her grandson, Kenneth B. Wilton Jr. of Saratoga, and her great-grandson, Alexander Wheeler of Los Gatos.

The Rev. Nicholas Viglas of St. John's Russian Orthodox Church, Berkeley, will officiate at funeral services Thursday at 1 p.m. at Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills, Los Gatos. Inurnment follows.

Los Gatan Remains Unconscious

A 41-year-old Los Gatos woman, who was found unconscious in the driveway of a West Side apartment Wednesday night, remains in extremely critical condition today at Valley Medical Center with a blood clot in her brain.

Hospital officials said Mrs. Margot Duffy, a draftswoman of 21644 Summit Rd., is still unconscious.

They said the only outward appearance of injury is a tiny mark on the back of her skull.

Chief of Detectives Barton L. Collins said the woman may have fallen from a car and struck her head on a sharp object, possibly a garden spigot.

Detectives are still seeking two men who were seen leaving a West Side tavern with the woman.

Crash Kills Ex-Los Gatos Resident

Mrs. Victoria Stuart Falconer, 59, of Wawona, a former Los Gatos resident, was killed last Friday in an automobile accident near Tucson, Ariz.

The accident put her husband, Hugh, in the hospital with serious injuries.

Falconer for many years was an elementary school principal in Santa Clara.

He retired last June and the couple moved from Los Gatos to Wawona.

They left Wawona Jan. 10 on an extended vacation. They had been in Los Angeles and San Diego and planned a Mexican jaunt before returning about March 1.

Their car went out of control and was smashed, along with the trailer they pulled. No other cars were involved, and it was unclear who was driving.

Mrs. Falconer was born in Oakland and lived in Hollywood and in Oregon before moving to Cottonwood where she met and married Hugh Falconer about 1934. His first job as a principal was in Cottonwood, but they moved to the Santa Clara Valley about two years later.

He was principal of Jefferson and later of Fremont School.

The last two years before his retirement he was a junior high school teacher at Wilson School.

Mrs. Falconer was an honorary life member of the Parent-Teachers Assn., a member of Eastern Star, and a member of the West Valley Women's Club.

An excellent seamstress, she did work for other people, and she worked four years as a saleswoman in a Los Gatos yardage store, retiring last June.

The funeral will be at Chapel of the Hills in Los Gatos at 2 p.m. tomorrow, with the Rev. Stewart Harro, a Los Altos Presbyterian minister, officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Memorial Park.

Survivors, besides the husband, include her mother, Mrs Mabel Stuart of Los Gatos; two sons, Daniel Falconer of Cupertino and Stephen Falconer of Fremont; and three grandchildren.

DR. STAHLMAN

Saratoga Surgeon Dies–Lung Cancer

SARATOGA — Dr. Gray E. B. Stahlman, 47, of 19941 Sunset Drive, a neurosurgeon and staff member of Good Samaritan Hospital and Community Hospital of Los Gatos-Saratoga, succumbed to lung cancer Friday after three weeks' hospitalization.

An associate of Dr. H. N. MacKinnon, he had practiced neurosurgery in the valley since 1961.

Stahlman was born in Nashville, Tenn., the son of Maj. E. B. Stahlman, founder and publisher of the Nashville Banner.

He attended St. John's Military Academy, a Wisconsin preparatory school, graduated in 1939, took his pre-medical training at Vanderbuilt University in Nashville and, for three post-World War II years, served as a U.S. Army non-commissioned officer.

Stahlman was graduated from Vanderbuilt Medical School in 1950, and spent his specialty training at Vanderbuilt and, for a time, at the Neurological Institute, Queen Square, London, England.

He held memberships in Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Phi Chi professional fraternity, and Belle Meade Country Club. While residing in Nashville, he won appointment to the Vanderbilt School of Medicine faculty.

In California, he was certified by the American Board of Neurological Surgery. He held memberships in the Congress of Neurological Surgeons, the Santa Clara County Medical Society, and the American Association of Neurological Surgeons (Harvey Cushing Society).

Stahlman also was a fellow in the American College of Surgeons.

He attended St. Andrew's Episcopal Church here, and was a member of the LaRinconada Golf and Country Club in Los Gatos.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Gloria Drake Stahlman, his son, Gray Clark Stahlman, and daughter, Miss Kimberly Shelton Stahlman, all of Saratoga; his brother, James G. Stahlman, publisher of the Banner, and two sisters—Dr. Mildred Stahlman, a pediatrician at Vanderbilt, and Mrs. George Hill, also of Nashville.

Dr. Roy W. Strasburger will officiate at memorial services Monday at 11 a.m. at St. Andrew's Church. Stahlman will be inurned at Madronia Cemetery.

Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills, Los Gatos, is handling the arrangements.
